2.0 INTRODUCTION

DXN has established this Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy (“this Policy”) with the objective to provide a formal and confidential channel to enable all employees and stakeholders of the Group to report serious concerns of any improper conduct (defined in Section 3 below) involving the Group’s resources in good faith.

This Policy shall be read together with DXN’s other internal policies/ procedures/ guidelines/ manuals including but not limited to DXN’s Employee Handbook.

This Policy is not intended to provide answers to all questions regarding bribery and corruption, instead it is intended to provide the Directors, Employees and Associates with guide on how to prevent and detect bribery and corruption in pursuant to DXN’s zero tolerance on bribery and corruption.

3.0 OBJECTIVE

The purpose of this Policy is aimed to:

- 3.1 Set out DXN’s responsibilities of the Directors and Employees to observe and uphold DXN’s stance on zero tolerance to bribery and corruption;
- 3.2 Provide information and guidance on how DXN expects its Directors, Employees and Associates to conduct themselves;
- 3.3 Provide guidance on how to recognize bribery and corruption and to set out the procedure on how to raise concerns on breaches of this Policy without fear of reprisal;
- 3.4 Ensure DXN has adequate procedure in place to prevent and detect bribery and corruption; and
- 3.5 Protect DXN against the possible penalties and repercussions resulting from acts of bribery and corruption.

4.0 SCOPE

This Policy applies to the Group’s Directors, Employees, Associates and any other person associated with the Group, unless otherwise stated in the specific policies.

This Policy is also applicable to all of the Group’s business dealings with commercial (private sector) and government (public sector) entities.

The Company, its subsidiaries and affiliates shall conduct its business in compliance with Group’s anti-bribery and corruption policy and shall continue to maintain and enforce said policy and procedures designed to promote and ensure compliance with all applicable anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws in respective foreign jurisdiction.

5.0 POLICY STATEMENT

The Board and the management of DXN take zero tolerance approach to and strong stance against all forms of bribery and corruption. DXN is committed to conduct its business in honest and ethical manner, and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations which include compliance with the Turkish Penal Code and all amendments or re-enactments that may be made by the relevant authorities from time to time.

6.0 SUPPORT

The Directors, Employees and Associates requiring support or advice pertaining to compliance of this Policy shall consult Compliance Unit or ABCC.

7.0 COMPLIANCE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

7.1 The Directors, Employees and Associates are expected to refuse to give or receive a bribe when solicited or offered one even if such refusal to give or receive a bribe will lead to monetary loss to the Group and report suspicious activities or violations to the designated whistleblowing channels. The Group is committed to ensuring that no one including Employees to suffers from any detrimental treatment (demotion of position or penalty) for refusing to give or accept bribe.

7.2 The Directors and Employees shall be responsible to:

- a. Be familiar with applicable requirements and directives of this Policy and communicate them to subordinates;
- b. Promptly record all transactions and payment accurately and in reasonable details;
- c. Always raise suspicious transaction or red flags transaction/situation to immediate superiors or Head of Department for guidance and next course of action; and
- d. Promptly report violations or suspected violations reported via the Company's whistleblowing mechanism.

7.3 Compliance of the Directors, Employees and Associates with this Policy is mandatory. Any violation of this Policy shall constitute a serious misconduct or offence that warrants an action which may lead to, but not limited to, disciplinary action, dismissal of employment, review of contract, cessation of business relationship, termination of service (whichever applicable) against the offender and/or reporting to the authorities consistent with relevant laws and regulations.

8.0 WHAT IS BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION?

- 8.1 Corruption refers to act of abuse of position for personal gain or misuse of position to help others to improperly enrich themselves.
- 8.2 Bribery is the most common form of corruption and it refers to the act of corruptly giving, agreeing to give, promising, offering, soliciting, receiving or agreeing to receive any benefit. Benefit can take various forms, including monetary, non-monetary, services, favors, or any form of benefit or advantage. Bribes can be direct (e.g.: Mr. X give a bribe to someone) or indirect (e.g.: Mr. X gets someone else to give a bribe to another person).
- 8.3 The Turkish Penal Code prohibits a person or a commercial organization from giving and receiving bribes, including via person acting on behalf of the commercial organization or its associates. It should be noted that it will be irrelevant whether the bribe was accepted or not, was given or not, as merely offering the bribe would be sufficient for an offence to be committed.
- 8.4 Bribery and corruption are punishable offences under the Turkish Penal Code. There are four (4) main offences prescribed in the Turkish Penal Code:
- a. Soliciting/ receiving benefit;
 - b. Promising/ offering/ giving benefit;
 - c. Intending to deceive (false claim).; and
 - d. Using office or position for own benefit.
- 8.5 Under Article 252 of the Turkish Penal Code, a person who commits an offence shall on conviction be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of up to 12 years.
- 8.6 Under Article 252 of the Turkish Penal Code, a commercial organization commits an offence if a person associated with the commercial organization offers a benefit to a Third Parties in order to obtain or retain business or an advantage for the commercial organization. A person is associated with the commercial organization if he is a director, partner or an employee of the commercial organization or he is a person who performs services for or on behalf of the commercial organization.
- 8.7 Under the Turkish Penal Code, a commercial organization who commits an offence shall, on conviction, be liable to:
- a. Deprivation of certain rights such as cancellation of license;
 - b. Confiscation of property; and
 - c. Confiscation of gains (proceeds of crime).

8.8 If a commercial organization is found to have committed an offence under the Turkish Penal Code, a person:

- a. Who is the commercial organization's director, officer or partner; or
- b. Who is concerned with the management or affairs of the commercial organization.

At the time of the commission of the offence, is deemed to have committed that offence unless that person proves that the offence was committed without his consent and that he has exercised due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

9.0 GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY

9.1 DXN generally adopts a "No-Gift Policy", subject to few exceptions, whereby all Directors, Employees and Associates shall not solicit or accept or give or offer any gifts that may have direct or indirect business interest or relationship (including any potential interest or relationship) with the Group.

9.2 The Directors, Employees and Associates shall at all times observe the following guiding principles:

- a. Transparency
The Directors or Employees should be comfortable to disclose to its colleagues the gifts or hospitality offered/ received.
- b. Recipients
The Directors or Employees should only offer or accept gifts or hospitality from those who will not put the Directors or Employees in position of conflict.
- c. Ability to influence
The gifts or hospitality must not be offered or accepted when there is pending business decision related to the offer or recipient of such gifts or hospitality.
- d. Value
The gifts or hospitality must be modest and not so frequent as to place the recipient under any obligation.
- e. Purpose
The intention behind the gifts or hospitality must not be interpreted or be perceived as to gain any unmerited advantage.

Receiving Gifts and/or Hospitality

9.3 The Directors, Employees, and Associates are not allowed to receive any gifts and/or hospitality, except for non-cash gifts and/or hospitality such as food, fruits,

ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION POLICY
VERSION 3.0 (2025)

flowers, and token gifts (e.g., planners, diaries, etc.) offered during special occasions or festive seasons (e.g., Chinese New Year, Hari Raya, New Year, etc.).

9.4 If the Directors, Employees or Associates are unsure or doubtful of the appropriateness of the gifts and/or hospitality offered or given, the offer of such gifts and/or hospitality should either be declined or the Employees and Associates may consult CU or if Directors, may consult Board.

9.5 Any Directors, Employees or Associates who were offered or have received a gift and/or hospitality in violation of the clause 9.3 above are required to politely declined the gifts and/or hospitality offered and return the gifts and/or hospitality with a note explaining the Group's "No-Gift Policy". For any gifts and/or hospitality received or where it is not possible to refuse or return the gifts and/or hospitality, then the following shall be adhered to:

- a. The Employees and Associate shall:
 - i. Submit the gifts and/or hospitality received (if possible) to GHR;
 - ii. Record the details in the Giving & Receiving Gift Declaration Form (Appendix A); and
 - iii. Submit the duly filled Giving & Receiving Gift Declaration Form to GHR who will seek approval from CFO on whether the gifts and/or hospitality can be accepted or rejected and to determine the treatment of the gifts and/or hospitality.

- b. The CEO and Directors shall complete and submit the duly filled Giving & Receiving Gift Declaration Form to the ABCC for record purpose.

Offering Gifts and/ or Hospitality

9.6 In general, gifts to Associates or Third Parties shall only be given as business courtesy and gifts such as Company's products may be offered during company events or functions. The Directors and Employees are not allowed to offer or give any gifts and/or hospitality to Associates or Third Parties if offering any gifts and/or hospitality shall be unsolicited and affecting or be perceived as affecting business judgment.

9.7 Gifts and/ or hospitality to Associates or Third Parties shall only be offered or given in adherence to the following:

- a. The Employees and Associate shall:
 - i. Filled in the details in the Giving & Receiving Gift Declaration Form (Appendix A); and
 - ii. Submit the duly filled Giving & Receiving Gift Declaration Form to GHR who will seek approval from CFO on whether the gifts and/or hospitality can be accepted or rejected and to determine the treatment of the gifts and/or hospitality.

- b. The CEO and Directors shall complete and submit the duly filled Giving & Receiving Gift Declaration Form to the ABCC for record purpose.

9.8 The following items are prohibited to be offered as gifts and/or hospitality to Associates or Third Parties:

- a. Any gift of cash or cash vouchers;
- b. Any gifts and/or hospitality which is lavish and/or excessive or may adversely tarnish the reputation of the Company; or
- c. Any gifts and/or hospitality that would be illegal or in breach of applicable laws on bribery and corruption.

9.9 All expenses incurred to provide the gifts and/or hospitality must be properly recorded in the Giving & Receiving Gift Declaration Form.

10.0 POLITICAL DONATIONS, CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS AND SPONSORSHIPS

Political donations and sponsorships

- 10.1 Any request for political donations or sponsorship must be escalated to the CEO for review and approval by the Board subject always to the prevailing laws, bylaw, and regulations.
- 10.2 Political donations or sponsorships should never be made in exchange for any business implications to the Company, whether it is to obtain a business, or to obtain some form of advantage to the business of the Company.
- 10.3 The Directors, Employees and the Associates in their personal capacity are not prohibited from making personal political donations or sponsorships (in any form including monetary or goods) to any political parties in their personal capacity and shall expressly make clear that such political donations or sponsorships are made under the Directors, Employees and the Associates' personal capacity and in no way associated with DXN.

Charitable contributions and sponsorships

- 10.4 As general principle, to avoid any situations where there could be actual or perceived conflict of interest, DXN shall not make any charitable contributions or sponsorships (in any form including monetary or goods) to Associates, Third Parties, government authorities or any entities directly related to government authority or for any events of Associates, Third Parties, government authorities or any entities directly related to government authority if:
 - a. DXN is expecting to apply, obtain or renew any licenses/permits from the government authority in the near future; or

ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION POLICY
VERSION 3.0 (2025)

- b. DXN has just applied, obtained, renewed any licenses/permits from the government authority for DXN's business activities in the recent past; or
- c. DXN is expecting or just had dealings with the Associates, Third Parties or entities directly related to government authority.

10.5 The Company shall only contribute to legitimate body and a registered charity. The recipient will be required to provide a proof of payment for the contribution.

10.6 However, should charitable contributions or sponsorships be made to the contrary of the preceding item in a rare or selective situation without favoritism or in exchange for any business implications to the Group whether it is to obtain a business or to obtain some form of advantage to the businesses of the Group, then prior approval from CEO and CFO is required subject always to the prevailing laws, bylaw, and regulations.

11.0 DEALINGS WITH ASSOCIATES

- 11.1 The Group could be liable for acts of Associates, as such, the Group is committed to promoting compliance with this Policy by Associates.
- 11.2 DXN requires that all Employees to conduct the requisite due diligence on Associates that the Group engages, appoints, contracts with or hires to carry out any external functions on behalf of the Group, which includes without limitation to agents, consultants, contractors, subcontractors, resellers, customs brokers, business contacts, professional advisors, joint venture partners, any other parties supplying goods and services to Group, any other entity within the aforementioned definition of “Associate”. High risk transaction will require further due diligence which may require additional investigation.
- 11.3 The Group is to ensure that any payments made are for actual service provided or contractual obligations performed and not for payments that can be tied to giving any form of gratification for improper purposes.
- 11.4 The Group expects Associates to have anti-bribery and corruption policies in place within their organization or part of their work ethics which are consistent with this Policy.
- 11.5 As part of the Group’s effort to ensure compliance of this Policy, the management will be implementing anti-bribery and corruption clause in all its agreements and contracts which gives right to the Group to take any action it deems fit including to cease any business relationship or void the agreements and contracts if the Group finds that the other contracting party has committed or have reasonable reason to believe that it will be committing act of bribery or corruption which relates to the service in the agreements and contracts.
- 11.6 The Group has zero tolerance of Associates who do not conduct themselves in accordance to the principles of this Policy where it brings disrepute or legal implications to the Group. Any non-compliance with the principles of this Policy by the Associates may lead to the review and/or termination of any agreements and contract with such parties.
- 11.7 Due diligence must be conducted on all Associates. DXN reserves the right to terminate relationships with non-compliant parties.

12.0 DEALINGS WITH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS/ FOREIGN OFFICIALS

- 12.1 DXN recognize that the practice of offering and receiving gifts varies between countries, regions, cultures, and religions, so the definitions of what is acceptable and not acceptable will inevitably differ for each situation.
- 12.2 When dealing with public officials, Directors and Employees should ensure that any giving or receiving of gifts, entertainment or hospitality do not relate to, in any form whatsoever, the public official's official dealings or public duty. At all material times, Directors and Employees are to ensure compliance with laws of their respective jurisdictions, and the higher standard will be applicable to Employees to avoid noncompliance of any laws on anti-bribery which may be applicable to the Company as a whole.
- 12.3 Any offering or giving gifts, entertainment or hospitality by Directors or Employees to public officials is for circumstances where it is to reasonably facilitate genuine promotional, business or educational meetings and shall be made in compliance with item 9.5 (for receiving) and item 9.7 (for offering) above.
- 12.4 Any offering or giving gifts, entertainment or hospitality by Associates to public officials are for circumstances where it is to reasonably facilitate genuine promotional, business or educational meetings.
- 12.5 Any gifts, entertainment and hospitality provided must be without expectation of any influence exerted on the public official in exchange for any commercial outcome, and should always be at a reasonable and modest value.

13.0 FACILITATION PAYMENTS AND KICKBACKS

- 13.1 DXN adopts a strict policy of disallowing the use of facilitation payments or kickbacks of any kind in its business. Facilitation payments are typically small, unofficial payments made to secure or expedite a routine action by an official. Kickbacks are typically payments made in return for a business favor or advantage.
- 13.2 The Directors, Employees and Associates must not offer, promise, give, request, accept or receive anything that may be regarded as facilitation payments. Any Employees who receive of or requested to made such facilitation payments or kickbacks must immediately report to CU, or if Directors then to report to Board and to inform CU, or if Associates then to report to DXN's Employees that the Associates liaise with for further investigation and determination of next course of action.
